

Joe

Five Times August

Hey Joe
Where you going with that gun in your hand
You'll strip the right from an American
But leave it locked and loaded for the Taliban

Hey Joe
Where you going with that blood on your hands
I heard you say it, it was on the news
You're the President, the buck stops with you

Now there ain't no mommy and there ain't no dad
Cause you wrapped them up in the American flag
13 kids, but you stopped a war
And there ain't no sense in going back for more
Cause hey Joe, we did it, 81 million views
Hey Joe
Where you going? Why you moving so slow

They'll prop you up for the TV screen
But forget your job, what flavor ice cream is that

And hey Joe
Where you going? Do you even know
C'mon man, not a joke
Here's the deal, the country's broke

You ain't no leader and you ain't the boss
You wander around like you're f*cking lost
So, check your watch, turn your back
Set us up for the big attack
Cause hey Joe, we did it, 81 million votes

Hey Joe
So, where you going with that gun in your hand
And hey Joe
Where you going with all that blood on your hands
