Five Times August

Oh my, heavy times
Everybody's angry living lies
And you broke joke woke folk
Think you're going to save the day
You've gone out of your damn mind, kids
Nobody cares about what you say

So, you scream "oh please, look at me!"
Living through an iPhone TikTok dream
"Rate me, date me, grade me, pay me"
Begging for attention, boo hoo
You've gone out of your damn mind, kid
Nobody cares about what you do
Ya want to play the victim
Want to be the hero
Looking like a miserable confused weirdo
Think you've got it figured out for everybody else
When you don't even know yourself
All your selfies ain't no revolution
They're slowing down our evolution
I s'pose I need to apologize
And if I don't you'll hope and wish I die

Oh cool, another rule
Made up by a teenage rebel who loves
Big tech, big pharm, big gov, big laws
Gonna talk about it on their new blog
You've gone outtayerdaminde, kid
Nobody cares about whatcha want

So you cry "not true! I'll fact check you!"
Getting your opinion approved

By some desperate, faceless, nameless, brainless
Intern writer for the fake news
Hey, you're outtayerdaminde
Nobody cares about what they say

Ya think you've got a voice
Think you've got a choice
Think you're something special in the corporate white noise
Tweet this, post that, gram this, Tok that Swipe left, tap here, tube this, not that
You think that they're on your side
They only share what they decide
You're just part of the corruption
That's peddling crap for mass consumption
Oh geez, you labeled me
Your tolerance is so extreme
Which one do I get to be
A Fascist? Bigot? Or Nazi
You're out of your mind kid
Cause I don't care about what you think

Oh my, heavy times
Everybody's angry living lies
And you broke joke woke folk

Think you're going to save the day
You've gone out of your mind, kid
Nobody cares about what you say

You've gone out of your mind, kid
Nobody cares about what you say

You've gone out of your mind
Nobody cares about what you say
