

Take Me Away

Five Times August

It's killing me, I've got to see what's underneath, what's holding me, what's got me down.
It has to be the best of things, I won't be one to disagree, but it's way too loud.

So take me, away.
Take me, away.

Falling down, it's all around, it's the only thing that I have found, beneath the sun.
Scattering, there has to be a little more simplicity, to make this one.

So take me, away.
So take me, away.
It's brought me down, away from all I know.

soft singing

So take me, away.
Take me, today.
Take me, away.
Take me, away.

It's brought me down, it's turned me around.
It's brought me down, away from all I know
