

Anything but Lonely

Fivefold

We talk the talk and walk to the beat
We hurt ourselves and it's clear to see
In the end, we would rather be
Anything but lonely

We begin vindicated
A broken image of how it should be
Every friendship so jaded
Crack a smile and lie through our teeth

And we question why we feel so alone
And why we're so far from home
We forget who we were meant to be

We talk the talk and walk to the beat
We hurt ourselves and it's clear to see
In the end, we would rather be
Anything but lonely

We talk the talk and walk to the beat
We hurt ourselves and it's clear to see
In the end, we would rather be
Anything but lonely

Like we're walking in circles
We forget what matters in the end
And so the story goes
Our lives fixed on pretending

And we question why we feel so alone
And why we're so far from home
We forget who we were meant to be

We talk the talk and walk to the beat
We hurt ourselves and it's clear to see
In the end, we would rather be
Anything but lonely

We talk the talk and walk to the beat
We hurt ourselves and it's clear to see
In the end, we would rather be
Anything but lonely

On my own, I'm not alone
I'm anything but lonely
On my own, I'm not alone
I'm anything but lonely
On my own, I'm not alone
I'm anything but lonely

We talk the talk and walk to the beat
We hurt ourselves and it's clear to see
In the end, we would rather be
Anything but lonely

We talk the talk and walk to the beat
We hurt ourselves and it's clear to see

In the end, we would rather be
Anything but lonely
