

Feel Something

Fivefold

Nothing comes easy
Lessons in the waiting
Sick of counting on the days
Never been the one to stand in one place, yeah
I need to find a gatekeeper
Someone better open my future
But I don't think that it'll happen their way
Joke's on me if I don't create
Losing hope in my head
Life goes way too fast
Said that I'll be happy about it
But how can I smile when I'm missing all that I want?
Dreams of days long past
Battled the gifts I have
Me and my guitar and a broken Outback
Could be the start of it all

I wanna feel like it's all worth something
When I feel like nothing
I can find all the words to leave a spark
Can you hear from this lowly poet?
Have a name, about to know it
I can sing all the words for the broken hearts

[?] midnight, do we lost sleep in our bed
Got a song and a vision in my head
And it's all I've ever known
Always working hard to get the gold
Well is it over? Where's the closure?
Find some peace, I'll hold it close
I'm going nowhere
By going somewhere all the time

I wanna feel like it's all worth something
When I fail I'm nothing
I can find all the words to leave a spark
Can you hear from this lowly poet?
Have a name, about to know it
I can sing all the words for the broken hearts

Take it way back to the day that I had
A little love, wanna give it back
When I know that I hold snapshot everglow
Something I can never hold
It's taking too much of my life
Trying to keep up this high
Find some solace in the sounds
That make me who I am, oh

You can't take it back
My soul, all I have
Some place to find
A vision of a life I should be proud of
We're chasing all that money
I sit here with this melody
Making dreams with my friends
Words that they heard until the end

I wanna feel like it's all worth something
When I feel like nothing
Can you hear from this lowly poet?
Have a name, about to know it
I can sing all the words for the broken hearts
I wanna feel
Ah, ooh
I wanna feel
I can sing all the words for the broken hearts
(You can't take it back)
I wanna feel
Ah, ooh
(My soul, all I have)
I wanna feel
I can sing all the words for the broken hearts
