

Hold On

Fivefold

It seems all my bridges are up in flames
And I cannot find a way to cross this river of memories
Wasting time just standing here
We had a fire that could set ablaze
Burning up all the doubt and the shame
But those clouds moved in when the cold winds came

We fell victim but when I
Close my eyes all I see are the
Memories like some distant dream
Take the loss with a grain of salt but
I'm not fooling anybody am I this time

We ruled that summer like kings and queens
Times that I hold close to me
Reckless and fallen for a dream
Heads held high till the morning
We had a vision, a place to breathe
Swore we'd never break the chains
But this life has never been a game

We fell victim but when I
Close my eyes all I see are the
Memories like some distant dream
Take the loss with a grain of salt but
We're not fooling anybody are we this time

Hold on to who we were
Nothing can hold a candle
I'll take away from what we've learned
Keep the dreams closer
And now we grewed separate lives
And breaking the ice is getting harder
But there's no need to waste our words
On what's gone and over

We're changing with the seasons, always changing
So how in the world did we think
That we'd stay the same, we're changing
And though we've grown so far
Nothing can take away what we've seen and what we've learned
We're changing and that's okay
We had our time and now we can

Hold on to who we were
Nothing can hold a candle
I'll take away from what we've learned
Keep the dreams closer
And now we go our separate lives
And breaking the ice is getting harder
But there's no need to waste our words
On what's gone and over
