FKA twigs

It's dangerous to be a woman in love
I'm walking quicker but you're picking up
Feel like I'm navigating muddy waters
Heal us (Ooh-oh)
My daddy told me call him when I get home
But you can shoot me when I'm all alone
I'm hoping we can find deliverers
Heal us

I don't wanna die for love
But a holy love
That one and only love
My life is worthy of

Dancing in the dark, I can feel it in my heart
You're a killer, but I didn't wanna call it
Something in the way you put your hands on my waist
Pulled me nearer, no, I never wanna call it
Didn't wanna call it, didn't wanna call it
Took your love for righteous and now I'm in a crisis with a killer
Woah, oh, oh

You got me questioning what to believe in
Since when did happiness become a sin?
Since when did hurt become deliberate?
Heal us

I don't wanna cry for love
But a holy love
That one and only love
My tears is worthy of

Dancing in the dark, I can feel it in my heart
You're a killer, but I didn't wanna call it
Something in the way you put your hands on my waist
Pulled me nearer, no, I never wanna call it
Didn't wanna call it, didn't wanna call it
Took your love for righteous and now I'm in a crisis with a killer
Woah oh oh

And when I doubt myself around you
I look at pictures of me before you
Girl gone wild
I'll shave my hair off to get you outta my head
And even eating's hard without you
When it's your love, I want to guard you
It's true, hunger pains, no I can't live without you

Dancing in the dark, I can feel it in my heart
You're a killer, but I didn't wanna call it
Something in the way you put your hands on my waist
Pulled me nearer, no, I never wanna call it
Didn't wanna call it, didn't wanna call it
Took your love for righteous and now I'm in a crisis with a killer
Woah oh oh
