

Better Give U Up

FKJ (French Kiwi Juice)

You my obsession (ocean, eleven)
You my whole passion (patience, circle)
I was looking for another challenge (this usual mission)
I needed a change (a wish, creation)
Your eyes look like a mirror
And no more spells
My mind's wearing a robe
But look now, no
Love is not enough
In order to last
Remember your laugh
Is a part of my past

Better give you up my soul now
But I'll never never never stop
Thinking of you
I better give you up my soul now
But I'll never never never stop
Thinking of you

Never never in the right place
For us to stand by eachother
You have, you have, you have to replace
A fresh no good part and find another
My heart was like a stone
But you stopped the pain
I felt like a clone
Cold-blood in my veins
Forgive my silence
This absence of time
Cry my freeskins
Deceptional sublime
I keep a secret
A grand adventure
Academy grant
Couldn't happen in the future
Now go in your head
Your hand is playing touch
We're taking this new gate
You bring me so much

I better give you up my soul now
But I'll never never never stop
Thinking of you
I better give you up my soul now
But I'll never never never stop
Thinking of you
Better give you up my soul now
But I'll never never never stop
Thinking of you

I better give you up my soul now
But I'll never never never stop
Thinking of you
