

Learn To Fly

FKJ (French Kiwi Juice)

Hey yo I heard it across the grapevine
Sweet taste of the alibi, yeah
It's a dangerous scene
With no one who heard it right
Any colors cause it takes time
The eclipse of the school lights, yeah
It was strange as it seems
With nothing but us tonight
Said I'll speak to you to prove
That I'm the reason tonight
(Tonight, yeah)
[?] I'll lose
Cause we are shuffling all right
(All right)

You're learning to fly
The beast of the mind
You're learning to fly
The beast of the mind

In a state of war
Yes, it's dangerous
Cause it's us and them
Hey yo we comfortably numb
In a state of war
Yes, it's dangerous
And it's us and them
Hey yo we comfortably numb
In a state of war
Cause it's dangerous
And it's us and them
Hey yo we're comfortably numb
In a state of war
Cause it's dangerous
And it's us and them
Hey yo we're comfortably numb

You're learning to fly
The beast of the mind
You're learning to fly
The beast of the mind
You're learning to fly
The beast of the mind
You're learning to fly
The beast of the mind
