

Evil Will Prevail

Flaming Lips

With loving hands and their arms are stretched so wide
They can't seem to take a breath knowing evil will prevail
And a million people seems like a lot
And a million people can't be wrong...

With loving smiles and their mouths are stretched so wide
They can't even take a breath knowing evil will prevail
And the magic bullet is the glowing mothership
And the mother zaps you dead...

With loving hands knowing evil will prevail
Knowing evil will prevail
Knowing that evil will prevail
Knowing evil will prevail
Knowing that evil will always win...
