

Sun Blows Up Today

Flaming Lips

Don't stop, tick tock
Sun blows up today
Don't stop, punk rock
Too much fun today
Run and run and too much fun today
Run to outer space
Seeing your smiling face
Everywhere it's all together
On this epic day

Run and run
And run and run
And run and run
And run and run
And run and run
And run and run
And run and run
And run and run
And run and run
And run and run
(Sun blows up)
And run and run
And run and run
(Sun blows up)
And run and run
And run and run
(Sun blows up)
And run and run
And run and run...

Run, run, run
Run, run, run...

And run and run
And run and run...

Run, run, run
Run, run, run...

Run to outer space
Seeing your smiling face
Everywhere it's all together
On this epic day
