The Rotten Hand

Flatfoot 56

Build your brother up, tear your anger down Throw your fist into the air, tell all your friends That you'll stand strong until the end Let them all know their Father cares

I've been alone since the day I was born Living my life just for myself Just drinking and eating, but never believing Going to church just for my health

One day the man of God stood and he told me The Father's got a plan for my life Well this news hit my head, like a punch from uncle Ned

So I went and found me self a wife Well I found me self a girl, who was lovely as a pearl Until she turned out to be a man Well I puked and I screamed, cause she wasn't as she seemed Man, I got dealt a rotten hand

Well the moral of my story was the tale of my pride It's my own selfishness that lied For if I follow my own plan, I will falter at the end My Father's got a plan for my life So now I follow Him with my back turned from sin Lead me on my Father Adonai I will be your man
