

Anorexia

Flaw

So somebody did you wrong
Took away your only home
In the middle of a falling yeah
Label if it caps you dry
A mother looks you in the eye and
Thought you were somebody else
Now
Now I am on the end
You won't have to pray and
Now I'm falling on a really I'm just sad to say that
It fuckin makes me sick
It fuckin makes me sick
It fuckin makes me sick
You fuckin make me sick bitch
It fuckin makes me sick
It fuckin, gonna make me fuckin sick
It fuckin makes me sick
You be fuckin, making me sick bitch
It fuckin makes me sick
It fuckin makes me sick
It fuckin makes me sick
You be fuckin, making me sick bitch
Now that your hope is gone
You're asking for it all alone
Face the truth,
We don't deserve it
Treated like a little child
I'm not sure if all the while
I'll make it all right instead
(chorus)
You can look your mind and just
You might find that you would never learn to Whatever enters the realm of the un-blind and Equal everything that you see and
It will come right back to me
What we get is only what we deserve
Every part of us always returns to itself
Unless you
It fuckin makes me sick
It fuckin, gonna make me fuckin sick
It fuckin makes me sick
You be fuckin, making me sick bitch
It fuckin makes me sick
It fuckin makes me sick
And I'm lost once again
Now that you've found your home
Feels like the final song
Blame your self; it's the only way
For me to be truly free
Live the life like it should be
Equal and very godlike
(chorus)
Whatever enters the real
