

Conquer This Climb

Flaw

You can't fly on your own
You can't fly on your own

So the reflection runs high
You're so much better than I ever tried to be
You saved my life this time
You didn't need to know why
I can see your aura is glowing
And all my time has run dry
Our two worlds colliding
I think it's time that we fly

But if your wings are broken
Well you can use mine
Truer words were never spoken
We can conquer this climb
But if your wings are broken
Well you can use mine
Truer words were never spoken
We're gonna conquer this climb

Fly on your own

All of the elements try
They make the faces of a different side of me
Behind a mask we hide
Nobody really knows why
The better half of me is growing
Despite the hands of time
There's so much substance in knowing
That we can finally fly

But if your wings are broken
Well you can use mine
Truer words were never spoken
We can conquer this climb
But if your wings are broken
Well you can use mine
Truer words were never spoken
We're gonna conquer this climb

But if your wings are broken
Well you can use mine
Truer words were never spoken
We can conquer this climb
But if your wings are broken
Well you can use mine
Truer words were never spoken
We can conquer this climb

We can fly on our own