Fatal Fall

Flaw

There's far too many people waiting for the end to come
This just is not the case
Divided by the same beliefs that seem to end as one
It's such a bitter taste

I'm trying to save you from a fatal fall
'Cause I don't think that you can take it
You gotta stop before you lose it all
And find the strength so you can make it

I know it feels as though inside you are the only one
Who's ever felt disgraced
Deep down the hurt inside is crying out
It's just begun at such a rapid pace
You've started acting like the world has slowly come undone
It's such a lonely place
I know it feels as though inside you are the only one
That is just is not the case

I'm trying to save you from a fatal fall
'Cause I don't think that you can take it
You gotta stop before you lose it all
And find the strength so you can make it

How can I just sit by with all the things I've seen?
I've gotta save your life with every ounce of me
This is our final try to raise your self-esteem
A new start and a new day so wash it clean

I'm trying to save you from a fatal fall
'Cause I don't think that you can take it
You gotta stop before you lose it all
And find the strength so you can make it
