

I was born to rule this world
A mother nature's wonder
Ready to shed my brothers' blood
Yet still your doormat
Spellbound before the slit
That cracks the biggest mountain
Waiting to be blessed by your spit
Like if it's a fountain

Your mesmerizing smile
Just makes me lose my mind

For you I die
For you I sacrifice
As you're my one and only love, Monnalisa!

In line towards the womb
The draining march of the spineless
Drooling like stray dogs before the bone
We kill at command

Bright light of my life shine
Yet make my reason blind

For you we die
For you we burn alive
As we're those ones slaves to our own Monnalisa

"Quare iam te cur amplius excrucies?
Quin tu animo offirmas atque istinc te ipse reducis
Et dis invitis desinis esse miser?
Difficile est longum subito deponere amorem
Una salus haec est, hoc est tibi pervincendum"

I gave up my whole life
Encaged my freedom
Aged like a puppet wired to your middle finger
Drown all my wishes in remorse
Tormented my soul
Stepped on my dignity in the name of your love

Oh my Adam hark the snake
Forsake your lord for me, your goddess

For you I die
Why don't you care?
For you I sacrifice
As you're my one and only love, Monnalisa!
