

Pendulum

Fleshgod Apocalypse

I kill myself without realizing
Nail after nail until the bitter end
Love for the unknown is what brought me up here
Where air is so thin that we can barely breathe
But better not look down

But this time you went too far
Oh, come on
On the path of no return
I can't believe it

I'm falling down
Straight to fucking hell
I'm dying, help
Nobody hears

"The dead" is the man who cannot give up
Haunted by the fear of dishonour
Dreams made of lead fill my barrel
Waiting to be shot straight into my brain
My Russian Roulette

Like dead meat hanging by a thread
But it's not my fault
You get the end you deserve
Sooner or later

I'm falling down
Straight to fucking hell
I'm dying, help
Nobody hears "the dead"

Lost soul
Swinging between life and death in a world upside down
Fool, walking on the edge
And now I'm a goddamned pendulum
Come up against this inglorious end
Yes, a fucking pendulum

I'm falling down
Straight to fucking hell
I'm dying, help
The fucking pendulum
