

Ego Talking

Fletcher

Ninety percent of the time
I'd say I'm pretty mature for my age
And it's only half of a lie
When I say you'll find someone better some day

So go do it all, have the time of your life
And kiss every girl, let 'em all stay the night
If you're moving on, I'll still lie to myself
That you'll never love anybody else, right?

Oh-oh
You'll never fuck somebody hotter, right?
Oh-oh-oh
Hope my lips haunt you for life
Hearing my name twists the knife
Hoping you stay brokenhearted
But that's just my ego talking

I'm happy for you
If they look just like a version of me
Ten out of ten, what a view
But not as good as me stripping out of your T-shirt

So go do it all, have the time of your life
And kiss every girl, let 'em all stay the night
If you're moving on, I'll still lie, lie, lie, lie
If you fall for someone else, you're just killing time, right?

Oh-oh
And she's just another seat filler, right?
Oh-oh-oh
Hope my lips haunt you for life
Hearing my name twists the knife
Hoping you stay brokenhearted
But that's just my ego talking

That's just my, that's just my
That's just my ego taking

Screaming, fighting, swinging
Crying, bleeding tonight
That's just my ego talking
Hurting, stalling
My heart is yours 'til I die
And you'll never love anybody else, right?
