

Silence

Fletcher

It's like a crutch, see if you're up
4 A.M., but I like a rush, so I'll go
Into your bed, my safety net
Cheaper than a therapy vent, yeah, I know

That I should let go, should be letting you go
I can't postpone it, not anymore
When I know what I already know
What I need is

Silence
All I need is time and space and silence
Cut communication 'cause I'm trying
To learn that I can lose you and survive it
What I need is

To be the one picking me up
Hold me down, I'm giving me all my love
To be the one I vibe with, that I'm spending all my time with
I know I'm gonna like it, I know
I'm gonna like it if I

Let go, I should be letting you go
I can't postpone it, not anymore
When I know what I already know
What I need is

Silence
All I need is time and space and silence
Cut communication 'cause I'm trying
To learn that I can lose you and survive it
What I need is

Silence, oh, silence, silence, oh
Silence, oh, silence, silence

Let go, I should be letting you go
I can't postpone it, not anymore
When I know what I already know
What I need is

Silence
All I need is time and space and silence
Cut communication 'cause I'm trying
To learn that I can lose you and survive it
What I need is

Silence, oh, silence, silence, oh
Silence, oh, silence, silence
