Sting

Fletcher

XO, do you ever miss me?
You chose brand new over history
That's cold, guess we're 50/50
Don't you wish I was your girlfriend still?
Tough luck, we were in a bad place
Fucked up, made a couple sex tapes
All love, whenever I hear your name
Don't you wish it worked

And we were on again?
'Cause I still feel you right here every now and then
And it hits me like a missile in my heart again
Don't you start again
In my heart again

Honestly, all I wanna know, why does it sting?
Why am I still hung up on things?
Are you gonna give that diamond ring that's meant for me to her?
But maybe I like the way it sting
It's all I got left of you and me
Rather it keep from cutting deeper, show what we were worth
(I always thought that we were-)

Hello, do you ever rewind?
I've been hurtin' from the goodbye
Feelings, do they ever die?

I wish we were on again
'Cause I still feel you right here every now and then
And it hits me like a missile in my heart again
Don't you start again
In my heart again

Honestly, all I wanna know, why does it sting?
Why am I still hung up on things?
Are you gonna give that diamond ring that's meant for me to her?
But maybe I like the way it sting
It's all I got left of you and me
Rather it keep from cutting deeper, show what we were worth

How much longer will it sting?
How much longer will it sting?

Tell me, what if we could start clean
With no hard feelings between us?
Could we ever be? Could we ever be?
Tell me what if we could go back
And take it all back, would you ever
Do that with me? Do that with me?

Sting
Why am I still hung up on things?
Are you gonna give that diamond ring that's meant for me to her?
But maybe I like the way it sting
It's all I got left of you and me
Rather it keep on cutting deeper, show what we were worth
