

Two Things Can Be True

Fletcher

Did we take it too far?
Maybe
Did I regret it then?
No
Do I regret it now that we don't talk?
Yeah

Did I want more than friends?
Maybe
Should I have gotten involved?
No
But did I like it every time we touched?
Yeah

Now you found someone else to hold you
In all the ways I couldn't
It hurts he makes you happier
You always wanted happier
I want that for you

Two things can be true
He can love you, baby, and baby, I can too
Things, they can be true
You can have his body and still think of mine too
You can still call me up at night
He can still be the love of your life
You can ignore me in every room
And still miss me
And me too
Things can be true
He can love you, baby, and baby, I can too

Did I expect this outcome?
Maybe
That you would end it first?
No
Was I delusional in thinking I could be in your life after all of this?
Yup

Someone else is holding you
In all the ways I couldn't (I wish it all was different)
It hurts he makes you happier
You always wanted happier
I want that for you

Two things can be true
He can love you, baby, and baby, I can too
Things, they can be true
You can have his body and still think of mine too
You can still call me up at night
He can still be the love of your life
You can ignore me in every room
And still miss me
And me too
Things can be true
He can love you, baby, and baby, I can too

I don't wanna be him
I don't wanna be in your bed
But I still wanna be close to you, baby
I don't wanna be him
I still wanna lay in your head
Yeah, I still wanna be known to you, baby

Two things can be true
He can love you, baby, and baby, I can too
Things, they can be true
Everything you said, did you mean it? 'Cause I do
