

Love U Already

Fleurie

A thousand miles away
Or just a stone's throw
I wonder what's running thru your mind
(And what your clothes smell like)

Will I find you in fields of gold?
Do you pray when no one knows?
I wanna know you, to hold you, to feel you

I haven't met you yet but I
Love you already
I'm lookin for somethin sweet
Somethin steady
Are you my river running?
Are you my possibly maybe?
I haven't met you yet but I
Love you already

I dream in black and white
But you're in technicolor
The way that time just takes its time
Can be such a bother
Oh how I wish that love had a remote
And I could press fast forward

I haven't met you yet but I
Love you already
I'm lookin for somethin sweet
Somethin steady
Are you my river running?
Are you my possibly maybe?
I haven't met you yet but I
Love you already
