

Whatever Gets You Off

Flickerstick

I'm betting on a new disease
Maybe love, maybe sleep
Whatever gets you off
Breathe like it should be your last
Dying young enough to live fast
Whatever gets you off

So go
This city has me by the throat
I fell in love with a hoax
I hope you let me off
So go
Seems so easy to do
The devil will get even with you
I hope he gets you off

Now I feel the ringing in my ears
I think I've been like this for years
And I'll be by your side until you get through
Cause no, no one's waiting for me
I hope maybe love, maybe sleep
Where there's nowhere to hide

From you
I can't breathe anymore
Now it's time to settle the score
Before I let you off
So come
Let's have some fun
Flip a coin or swallow a gun now
Let's see what gets you off

Oh come I'm gonna lay it down
Won't you tell me how far
How far you get off with
You get off
Come I'm gonna stop this now
I can't live without you
Without you it's over
I can't get off
