

Say No More

Flipp Dinero

You, changing truths
The things you do
The things you choose
If you don't really fuck with me girl then say no more (yuh)
If you don't really fuck with me girl then say no more (yuh)
If you ain't got love for me that's not how I know (yuh)
But you don't really want me to walk outside that door (yuh)
If you don't really fuck with me girl then say no more (yuh)
If you don't really fuck with me girl then say no more (yuh)
If you don't really fuck with me girl then say no more (yuh)
If you don't really fuck with me girl then say no more (yuh)
If you don't really fuck with me girl then say no more

I cannot lose you
I ain't forsake you, but you was choosey
But you was fakin', I had to prove it
'Cause your mistakes, I came to conclusion
All of your movement, was an illusion
It was confusin', what's the solution
Claiming you taken, for your amusement
Why were you fakin', what were we doin'

You, changing truths
The things you do
The things you choose
If you don't really fuck with me girl then say no more (yuh)
If you don't really fuck with me girl then say no more (yuh)
If you ain't got love for me that's not how I know (yuh)
But you don't really want me to walk outside that door (yuh)
If you don't really fuck with me girl then say no more (yuh)

Ooh... yuh
If you don't really fuck with me girl then say no more

How can I lose you
'Cause your mistakes, and there was some clues
You ain't by your place, but I never used you
Motions of pain, and I had [?]
I needed space, but that was before you
Love what you say, you love when I call you
Love what you say, that's why I'm so loyal
Girls say my name, defense like a lawyer
I gave you space, when I was just [?]
I was in chains, since I was disloyal
I gave you space, but I won't control you
I don't want games, no ditch that controller
Cheat at lil' games, don't pray that they're for ya'
Fact that you changed, that's fact you disloyal
I stayed the same, in fact I moved forward
Now she done changed, that shit I do for ya' (uh)

You, changing truths
The things you do
The things you choose
If you don't really fuck with me girl then say no more (yuh)
If you don't really fuck with me girl then say no more (yuh)
If you ain't got love for me that's not how I know (yuh)

But you don't really want me to walk outside that door (yuh)
If you don't really fuck with me girl then say no more

Yuh
