

Inner Wave

flipturn

Yesterday was open you had peace you cut your teeth white as a jewel

Always and forever

Keeping your identity amused

Why do I-I-I, I-I-I believe in you?

When I'm dry-y-y

You got me sipping on the juice

You got me high-igh-igh

High-igh-igh

And seeing through

Empathy and energy

The mushroom tea

That killed the ego blues

Now wait for the wave to carry me

It's an inevitable mutiny

I need

I needed proof

I'd been living here with someone else

In the room

'Cause I believe in you

Why do I believe in you?

I, oh baby

I wanna move

Let me out

(Just let me out, just let me out, just let me out)

'Cause I believe in you

Why do I believe in you
