

Reason To Pretend

flipturn

Am I someone to turn up dead?
And you, the murderer, you were possessed
Did I give you someone to cry about?
No, you love me a healthy amount

You don't need a reason
There's no reason to pretend
And it's not fair
You could have your freedom
Pulling away from me again
You'd get away with anything

Are you somebody to protest?
Keep a shotgun for the shoplifter in defense
Pulling the trigger without a doubt
'Cause you love me a healthy amount
You could shoot right now

You don't need a reason
There's no reason to pretend
And it's not fair
You could have your freedom
Pulling away from me again
You'd get away with anything
