

Sad Disco

flipturn

Summer came in on a Sunday
Hit me like a drunk on the subway, oh
Baby, I basked in the violence
Tulips and vines and the violets

Took me on down to a basement
Underneath the jungle pavement, oh
Kissed me like I was dying
How did she know I'd been trying?

Acting on the words that I say
Maybe she was meant for Broadway, oh
Tell me how it was before me
Tell me that you'd get so lonely

All I know
All I know
It was helpless
Helpless

Now, what the fuck is up with my life?
Now I wanna make her my wife
I wanna grow old and crazy
Give all the money to the babies

Now I wanna waste my power
Giving her all my time
She's gonna hang me, sadly
She's gonna eat me someday

All I know
All I know
It was helpless
Helpless
All I know
All I know
It was helpless
It was helpless
