

The Fall

flipturn

I've been gone
The come up came on too strong
But I've been watching and holding on To everything I want

Staring at the edge of a long way down
Waiting for the ground, thought I found Innocence in the moment, in this life, told myself we had more time
It was never mine

No more, it just goes on
Like a dead man dreaming, like a song
And everyone around me was just raising their arms
I just mouthed along

I stand at the edge of a long way down
Waiting for the ground I thought I found Innocence in the moment, in this life, told myself we had more
time
It was never mine

Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah
