

Whales

flipturn

Oh heart of mine
You are divine
I did what you were asked to
Lend you a blind
So you asked for a divorce
And I asked you 'what for?'
It was too much
Oh, it was more
Than you could handle

So you went numb
Oh, you went numb
Too much pressure
No more blood
You went numb

Still, I remember when
You were a friend
And you filled my head
With things you didn't Have to
Like swimming with the whales
You said I'd never fail
And we learned that life
Is just sentiment that's stale

So you went numb
Oh, you went numb
Too much pressure
No more blood
You went numb

Oh heart of mine
You are divine
I did what you were asked to
So how could I blame you?
