

Lay Up

Flo Milli

This the real me
It's just me, you and '42
So pull up on me, I'm in your city

When you get the time, come relax your mind
'Cause all I wanna do is lay up
All I wanna do is lay up
You ain't gotta keep it player
When you get the time, come relax your mind
'Cause all I wanna do is lay up
All I wanna do is lay up
With me, you ain't ever gotta keep it player

You the only hood nigga that gets me
So pull up on me, I'm in your city
Take a flick, we might end up on Getty
Say I love when you tell me I'm pretty
Baby, I need that shit on demand
It's a wave when you bust, I might ride it again
No, I don't wanna meet your friends
As long as you say you got me 'til the end

When you get the time, come relax your mind
'Cause all I wanna do is lay up
All I wanna do is lay up
You ain't gotta keep it player
When you get the time, come relax your mind
'Cause all I wanna do is lay up
All I wanna do is lay up
With me, you ain't ever gotta keep it player (Yeah)

This the real me
If you can save a ho, then you can heal me
I been through the most, so they gon' feel me
Tryna double back, you niggas kill me
It's so hard to find a nigga worth it
I can't judge you, ain't nobody perfect
He say, "Marry me" like he a virgin
Hop in a AMG and now he swervin'
He starin' at me, he observin'
He want the cookie, gotta earn it
Show me your love, I wanna learn it
I deserve it, I deserve it
It's just me, you and '42
Fuck the neighbors, they don't got a clue
Yeah, we do what we wanna do
So when you ready, make a move

You the only hood nigga that gets me
So pull up on me, I'm in your city
