DEELA

Take it up with another hoe, who cares you fucked up 'cause I'm heavy on grind
If I weren't so turned up right now, might spaz but you even ain't worth my time
Pack it up mister, put it in a box, I'll pay to ship that shit out my face
Take it up with another hoe who we know can't ever even think of taking my place
Huh, right, taking my place? Last time I checked she ain't finish her plate
Last time I heard she was down with a loser at a bar looking cheap, guess it has to be fate
Pretty little me, top-tier face, fat juicy lips, legs for days
Sucks to be you with a bean bag on, I could pull anything like the sun in space
Let's switch up the flow, switch up your gear, it's been stuck on P for a while now girl
Switch out my hoe, replace that trick for a geek so I'm guaranteed good head now
Give me my dough, price ain't cheap so stack up your coin like you need a new home
Do best alone but I got an A team who slide by me, where your crew at though?
Huh, weird, I got binoculars on and I still don't know where the real ones at Might have claws, but they don't bark back, try me, your whole crew gon' get blown back
People been capping, when last you did it like me? Eating on L's like they free
Bitch I cop wins in my sleep, my aura gives off elite, so

Take it up with another hoe, who cares you fucked up 'cause I'm heavy on grind
If I weren't so turned up right now, might spaz but you even ain't worth my time
Pack it up mister, put it in a box, I'll pay to ship that shit out my face
Take it up with another hoe who we know can't ever even think of taking my place

Huh, what? Taking my place, shitting on bitches, skirt off in the rain
Showing my ass, that nigga too late, he fishing for love, I ain't taking the bait
I thought a broke boy said I wouldn't be shit, look at the tables, I still got rich
Breaking his heart, hope it don't get fixed, can't show no love if you ain't my trick
He wasn't even worth my time, he wasn't worth them lies
Boy, you a loser, he know he fucked up 'cause I'm heavy on grind
Pack it up mister, heart in a box, I'll pay to ship that shit out my face
Take it up with another hoe who we know can't ever even think of taking my place
