

Broken Toy

Floater

Little boy comes home with a brand new toy
And so sets to playing with unstoppable joy So soon it's not any fun. Begging, "Mommy please, please can we go out and get a better one?"

A bigger boy comes home with a broken toy Searching for something else to destroy What once was second to none now sits in the darkness covered u p by all the better ones

His heart is burning like a firebrand. Only to stay in his drea mland

Dreamland

Older boy leaves home with a brand new toy
With all the others that they can find to deploy
So soon sees it's not any fun

Little toy soldier children ended before they have even begun

His heart is burning like a firebrand

Only to stay in his dreamland
