

The Bride Wore Black

Flogging Molly

Invincible,
With a heart sometime combustible
She's a raging river borne beneath my feet
No other could compete
Remarkable
Know many days and night
Dysfunctional
She's a contradiction all but her agree
Ah but who does she believe

The bride wore black
Though the color of her eyes shone like flawless pearls
Set forth from the sky
To the sailing seas
That carried us to be
Take me back to the vision where the bride wore black

Comical
But only happy when she's serious
Kicks the future where the present used to be, ah that's square between the teeth

Ah the bride wore black
Though the color of her eyes shone like flawless pearls
Set forth from the sky
To the sailing seas
That carried us to be
Take me back to the vision where the bride wore black
Take me back to the vision where the bride

She always tells it like it should
Plays the joke but not the fool
Then through the fire comes the rain
Ah things will never be the same
Ah never be the same

Oh and the bride wore black
Though the color of her eyes shone like flawless pearls
Set forth from the sky
To the sailing seas
That carried us to be
Take me back to the vision where the bride wore black
Take me back to the vision where the bride wore black

Hey
And the bride wore black
Yeah the bride wore black
Yeah the bride wore black
Yeah the bride wore black
I said the bride wore black
Yeah the bride wore black
