

For A While

Flora Cash

I hide beneath your lies
Don't need to think
No words on my own
Right here I feel so strong

You taught me how
To read the truth on my own
I wait all alone
I feel so strong

So here I am
So here I am
So born to be
So here you have me

And they think they got me forever
But it's only for a while
And sometimes peace strikes you
To be what you need to be
To carry on

So here I am
So here I am
You got me, so here I am

So take me, take me, take me, take it all
Take me, take me, take me, take it all

Just for a while
