

Falling Back To You

Florrie

Didn't miss you till you'd gone
I remember driving through the city till dawn
I remember wondering what it would be like
I guess we were in the right place at the wrong time

And I know that I could make it, I'm happy on my own
But it seems so overrated, now we got somewhere to go
And I wanna know the things you're thinking
All the high times and the lows
Yeah, I wanna feel, I wanna feel it

I'm falling back to you, yeah
I know you're falling too, yeah
I don't believe in karma
Just counting on my heart, yeah
So wouldn't it be nice if you'd stay another night
'Cause I'm falling back to you, yeah
I'm falling back to you, yeah
I'm falling back to you, yeah
I know you're falling too, yeah
I don't believe in karma
Just counting on my heart, yeah
So wouldn't it be nice if you'd stay another night
'Cause I'm falling back to you, yeah
I'm falling back to you, yeah

I could make-believe instead
Falling for imaginary scenes in my head
And it's kinda funny how I act surprised
Really, I knew it was always you on my mind

And I know that I could make it, I'm happy on my own
But it seems so overrated, now we got somewhere to go
And I wanna know the things you're thinking
All the high times and the lows
Yeah, I wanna feel, I wanna feel it

I'm falling back to you, yeah
I know you're falling too, yeah
I don't believe in karma
Just counting on my heart, yeah
So wouldn't it be nice if you'd stay another night
'Cause I'm falling back to you, yeah
I'm falling back to you, yeah
I'm falling back to you, yeah
I know you're falling too, yeah
I don't believe in karma
Just counting on my heart, yeah
So wouldn't it be nice if you'd stay another night
'Cause I'm falling back to you, yeah
I'm falling back to you, yeah
