

Human

Florrie

It gets a little complicated
I can see you're second-guessing if I'm alright
'Cause, you know, I'm pretty good at faking
But with you, I made a promise to speak my mind
Oh, no, I don't have a doubt about it
There are gonna be some things that are hard to hear
But you wouldn't be you without 'em
And together we can unbottle up our fears

How will we ever find utopia
If we keep running from ourselves? (Ooh, we keep on running
Ooh, we keep on running)
And I feel lucky just to know ya'
So it's okay to ask for help (Ooh-ooh-ooh)

Babe, I'm only human
And I've got a world inside me
You don't have to prove yourself
'Cause you are only human like me
Babe, I'm only human
And I've got a world inside me
You don't have to prove yourself
If you are only human like me

We're getting better navigatin'
All the parts of us that nobody else has seen
The letting go of my mistakes, it
Wasn't easy as we both made it out to be

How will we ever find utopia
If we keep running from ourselves? (Ooh, we keep on running
Ooh, we keep on running)
And I feel lucky just to know you
So it's okay to ask for help (Ooh-ooh-ooh)

Babe, I'm only human
And I've got a world inside me
You don't have to prove yourself
'Cause you are only human like me
Babe, I'm only human
And I've got a world inside me
You don't have to prove yourself
If you are only human like me
Like me, like me

Like me, like me
Like me, like me
Like me, like me
Like me, like me
