

Real Love

Florrie

You're so hard to read, you're the master of disguise
In your old blue jeans, you give me truth, you give me lies
You're a mystery, but it's exactly what I like
What I like

I can't pin you down, you're like catching open air
You make me laugh out loud, lying in your underwear
On your leather couch, I just wanna keep you there
Keep you there

All the voices in my head
Are pushing me right to the edge

If this is real love
Beating like a thousand drums, love
Burning like the hottest sun, love
You're the only one I want
I want, I want, real love
Hit me like a hurricane, love
Feel it running through my veins, love
You're the only one I want
Want, want, want

Real love, real love

All the little things, it's the smell of your cologne
Lying next to me, I breathe you in and I'm at home
Give me everything, I'm not afraid of the unknown
Of the unknown

Cause all the voices in my head
Are pushing me right to the edge

If this is real love
Beating like a thousand drums, love
Burning like the hottest sun, love
You're the only one I want
I want, I want, real love
Hit me like a hurricane, love
Feel it running through my veins
You're the only one I want
Want, want, want

Real love, real love
Real love, real love

I'm not scared of much
Take the pleasure with the pain
Do it all for us
Won't you meet me there halfway?
Don't be scared of love
Take the sunshine with the rain
Do it all for us
Do it all for us

If this is real love

Burning like the hottest sun, love
A fire running through my veins, love

(Real love...)
Real love, real love...
