

Rabbit's Foot

Flotsam and Jetsam

It takes a long time to come back from losing your mind take it from someone who really knows everytime you turn around there's someone there to drag you down and everytime you lose control you knock yourself right back down in the hole every step is not the last that you'll ever take every mistake is not the last one you'll ever make and when you need a helping hand there's someone there to kick the sand in when you need a real rescue there's no one coming to help you

I will walk all life with a rabbits foot hanging from my side ooh
I can walk all Babylon kin up to rapture up my stride good luck is my god [x2]

It's been a long time since i have lost my mind and i wish i really didn't know and everytime i turn around i pick myself up from down and when i need a helping hand there's someone there to help me stand and everytime i lose control i climb right back out of the hole

I will walk all life with a rabbits foot hanging
from my side ooh
good luck is my god [x2]
