Weaver

FLOYA

Unfamiliar names
No hand reaching for another
Is this some kind of game?
The one where we kill each other?

Falling deeper, I'm falling faster now
Right into the unknown
Pitch black darkness
Feels like I might drown

Why won't you leave me
Dear shadow I'm done
I see right through you
Why would you leave me
You're all that I've got
I draw my light from you

How can I explain
A whole new kind of colour
Feeding on this pain
A ghost posing as my brother

You're dragging me under
Beneath the rolling waves
I am lost inside your maze
You're dragging me under
This time I can't escape your maze

Why won't you leave me
Dear shadow I'm done
I see right through you
Why would you leave me
You're all that I've got
I draw my light from you

Why won't you leave me (Unfamiliar names)
I see right through you
(Is this some kind of game?)
I draw my light from you
