

Truce

Flume

I won't tell our friends about what you did
If you say it, say you're sorry like you really mean it
No validation is clear enough, clear it up for me now
So we can try to move forward

And I was unkind
Said things in a fight I didn't mean
I apologized to you sincerely
But I won't take responsibility
For the blame put on me
On account of the shame that you're feeling

Can we call truce on me and you?
Can we agree that we won't ever agree at all?
Can we call truce on me and you?
Can we agree that we won't ever agree at all?

Can we call truce on me and you?
Can we agree that we won't ever agree at all?
Can we call truce on me and you?
Can we agree that we won't ever agree at all?
