

Pull The Trigger

Flux Pavilion

These days it's better just not to talk
Just watch the way you're walking
Everybody watches what we do
Isn't it strange never thought it would have been this way
Doesn't matter what I say
'Cause I know that nothing has changed

You fired off like a smoking gun
Left me for dead like a hit and run
You make me feel like there is something to fight for
But there was just nothing at all
And I am standing here chasing all my fears
But I've got nothing, nothing more to give to you
And I'm trying hard I've played all my cards
But I've got nothing

Why don't you just pull the trigger?
Why don't you just pull the trigger?
Why don't you just pull the trigger?
Why don't you just pull the trigger?

You fired off like a smoking gun
Left me for dead like a hit and run
You make me feel like there is something to fight for
But there was just nothing at all
And I am standing here chasing all my fears
But I've got nothing, nothing more to give to you
And I'm trying hard I've played all my cards
But I've got nothing

Why don't you just pull the trigger?
Why don't you just pull the trigger?
Why don't you just pull the trigger?
Why don't you just pull the trigger?

And I am standing here chasing all my fears
But I've got nothing, nothing more to give you
And I'm trying hard I've played all my cards
But I've got nothing
Why don't you just pull the trigger?
