Somebody Else

Flux Pavilion

Sitting here trying to crack the code to your heart
Been trying to unfold who you are from the start

I'm giving everything
Even though you're still a mystery
You know it's hurting me
Not knowing if I'm enough to be what you need

If you want me to love somebody else
I will, I will
If all it takes is loving somebody else
I will
I will, I will, I will

If you want me to love somebody else
I will, I will
If all it takes is loving somebody else
I will

Sitting here trying to crack the code to your heart
