

(When it comes to you)
No limit in the sky
That I won't fly for your...
No amount of tears in my eyes
That I won't cry for you, oh no
With every breath that I take
I want you to share that air with me
There's no promise that I won't keep
I'll climb a mountain, there's none too steep

When it comes to you
There's no crime
Let's take both of our souls
And intertwine
When it comes to you
Don't be blind
Watch me speak from my heart
When it comes to you, comes to you

Oh... comes to you, comes to you
Oh... comes to you, comes to you

Cupid in a line
Arrow got your name on it, oh yeah...
Don't miss out on a love
And regret yourself on it, oh yeah...
Open up your mind, clear your head
Ain't gotta wake up to an empty bed
Share my life, it's yours to keep
Now that I give to you all of me

When it comes to you
There's no crime
Let's take both of our souls
And intertwine
When it comes to you
Don't be blind
Watch me speak from my heart
When it comes to you, comes to you

Oh... comes to you, comes to you
Oh... comes to you, comes to you
