

Borrow Your Time

Fly By Midnight

Saturday night, what a wild wild dream
The room feels like a full screen cinema
Got you close, got you so so close
But not for long

So I keep my head down, keep my heart open
Cause maybe one day you'll wanna stay
You won't run away

Street lights
Remind me
Of what it looks like
To hit a dead end feeling
I don't want to steal it but

If I could borrow your time
Lay your soul onto mine
We could let go
We could let go
All night
I wanna lose track of life
Find myself in those eyes
Pull you in close
Baby don't go
Hold tight
All night

Such a game, such a cruel cruel game
To watch my heart like sand through your fingertips
In the meantime, in the you and me time
Don't let it fall

Street lights
Remind me
Of what it looks like
To hit a dead end feeling
I don't want to steal it but

If I could borrow your time
Lay your soul onto mine
We could let go
We could let go
All night
I wanna lose track of life
Find myself in those eyes
Pull you in close
Baby don't go
Hold tight
All night

The sun keeps fading
On my patience
I'm losing faith
It drives me crazy
My heart keeps racing
Can't stop chasing
You

The sun keeps fading
On my patience
I'm losing faith
It drives me crazy
But I'll keep waiting
Can't stop chasing
You

If I could borrow your time
Lay your soul onto mine
We could let go
We could let go
All night
I wanna lose track of life
Find myself in those eyes
Pull you in close
Baby don't go
Hold tight
All night
Hold tight
All night

The sun keeps fading
On my patience
I'm losing faith
It drives me crazy
My heart keeps racing
Can't stop chasing
You

The sun keeps fading
On my patience
I'm losing faith
It drives me crazy
But I'll keep waiting
Can't stop chasing
