

Caffeine

Fly By Midnight

Bloodshot eyes
No, I can't focus
Since I let you in
Ever since I let you in

Every high
Like a crashing ocean
It's been sinking in
Ever since I let you in

Thinking in circles
When we're not together
If I let you go I'd be better

I don't know what I'm chasing
I'm smoking I'm pacing
Hours go by like forever

Now I'm like

I want you
It's way too late
I'm restless
I'm wide awake
Every time I lay down I can't sleep
You're keeping me up I'm like

I need you
And if you knew
Without you
You in my room
Every time I lay down I can't sleep
You're keeping me up caffeine

Vacant head
In this empty bed
Yeah, I think I'm losing it
I'm pretty sure I'm losing it

It's messed up nice
That you're my vice
And I keep on using it
It's probably why I'm losing it

Thinking in circles
When we're not together
And fighting it won't make it better

Now I'm like

I want you
It's way too late
I'm restless
I'm wide awake
Every time I lay down I can't sleep
You're keeping me up I'm like

I need you
Without you
You in my room
Every time I lay down I can't sleep

If you call me up on the way home
Start talking sweet like you always do
I'd be a mess and I think you'd know it

If you call me up on the way home
Keep talking sweet like you always do
I'd be a mess and I think you'd know it
But I'd never show it

I want you
I'm restless
Every time I lay down I can't sleep

I need you
And if you knew
Without you
You in my room
Every time I lay down I can't sleep

If you call me up on the way home
Start talking sweet like you always do

If you call me up on the way home
Keep talking sweet like you always do
