

Heart Race

Fly By Midnight

(It feels like it's a
Heart race wasting
My time spent chasing
A heart worth saying it to)

Maybe there's a universe where I'm not so cursed
I don't go date to date like such an introvert

And maybe there's a town on some Swedish countryside
It takes a plane to make the whole wait justified

Go slow
I overheard someone act like they know
Like I don't

And I try
But I don't see it so black and white
Maybe that's why

It feels like it's a
Heart race wasting
My time spent chasing
A heart worth saying it to

Feels like I'm just
Stuck here pacing
This heartache station
I've been right here waiting for you

(Ooo)

Wheels like mine in my mind keep on running round running round running round

Yeah, cause if my heart starts breaking
My heart stops racing for you
Ooo

I swear to God I had it once
It was too good to be true
She was so evangelistic
And I just wasn't in the mood

But cheers to all my effort
And here's to being fine
Cause hell, I just might find her face in a cloud nine silver line

That goes slow
I overheard someone act like they know
Like I don't

And I try
I just don't see it so black and white
Maybe that's why

It feels like it's a
Heart race wasting

My time spent chasing

Feels like I'm just

(Ooo)

Wheels like mine in my mind keep on running round running round running round

Yeah, cause if my heart starts breaking
My heart stops racing for you
Ooo

Years they floor and Drive right past my Racing heart
For you
Ooo
Ooo
