

I like you a lot
We'll meet up on your smoke break
Put our back on the bricks
I like you a lot
We'll talk all of your heartbreaks
How your life's gone to shit
But you never let me help you let it go
You never let me love you even though
I know, I know

Your best friend's laying with your last boyfriend
Your mom's out drinking with your dad's best man
I won't start acting like I understand
But I need you to understand

I like you a lot, lot
Yeah, I like you
Yeah, I like you

Down to earth but you need space
So you alienate me then call me "Baby"
I'm in a maze of your heartache
Tryna tear it down and build you up
So won't you let me help you let it go?
You gotta let me love you even though
I know, I know

Your best friend's laying with your last boyfriend
Your mom's out drinking with your dad's best man
I won't start acting like I understand
But I need you to understand

I like you a lot, lot
Yeah, I like you
Yeah, I like you a lot, lot
Yeah, I like you
Yeah, I like, I like you

Heartache, people tell her ignore it
But I say "Fuck it," 'cause I like you a lot
Heartbreak, people tell her, "Avoid it"
But I say "Fuck it," 'cause I like you a lot
Heartache, people tell her ignore it
But I say "Fuck it," 'cause I like you a lot
Heartbreak, people tell her, "Avoid it"
But I say "Fuck it," 'cause

I like you a lot, lot
Yeah, I like you
Yeah, I like you a lot, lot
Yeah, I like you
Yeah, I like, I like you
