

Infinitely Falling

Fly By Midnight

Heavy like a landslide
That's the way my heart beats now
Up until the last sunrise
I'll be reaching for you
Wanting you is all I know
And loving you is out of my control
So I'm letting go and going down

Cause nothing lasts forever anymore
But no one's felt the way I feel before
Cause you sweep the floor beneath me and I'm
I'm falling
I'm infinitely falling for you

I'm falling
I'm infinitely falling for you
I'm falling
I'm infinitely falling for you
I'm falling
I'm infinitely falling for you
I'm falling
I'm infinitely falling for you
I'm falling
I'm infinitely falling for you

With all that I am to the last drop
The more of you I get I can't stop
Lights always green
Real as a dream
You've been the cherry that's on top
The voice in my head's getting so loud
All I can see is you're here now
And so
I'm letting go and going down

Cause nothing lasts forever anymore
We float above the way it felt before
But you sweep the floor beneath me and I'm
I'm falling
I'm infinitely falling for you

I'm falling
I'm infinitely falling for you
I'm falling
I'm infinitely falling for you
I'm falling
I'm infinitely falling for you
I'm falling
I'm infinitely falling for you
I'm falling
I'm infinitely falling for you
I'm falling
I'm infinitely falling for you
I'm falling
I'm infinitely falling for you
I'm falling
I'm infinitely falling for you
I'm falling
I'm infinitely falling for you
I'm falling
I'm infinitely falling for you
I'm falling
I'm infinitely falling for you

You

I'm falling for you
And only for you
I'm falling for you
