

LA Lonely

Fly By Midnight

I, I can't pay my rent right now
But I can buy you a drink
Let's not talk how we think
Cause you, you don't need that stress right now
You're so calm and it kills me
It's not your fault that I'm empty, yeah

Sweep it under the sheets, yeah
Put your hands all on me, yeah
I should feel it but I don't
I'm lying with you in NoHo
It don't really feel like home so
I should call you but I won't

Cause I'm so LA
I'm so LA lonely, oh now
I'm so LA
I'm so LA lonely
And I'd ask you to stay
But even when you hold me
I know I'm so LA
I'm so LA lonely

All, all my friends are out right now
At a dive in New York
Have you been there before
No you, you stay up you don't go downtown
And that's ok cause I like you
But no I'm not really like you so

Sweep it under the sheets, yeah
Put your hands all on me, yeah
I should feel it but I don't
I'm lying to you that's so sad
Acting like I don't know that I should call you and I won't
And that's wrong

Cause I'm so LA
I'm so LA lonely, oh now
I'm so LA
I'm so LA lonely
And I'd ask you to stay
But even when you hold me
I know I'm so LA
I'm so LA lonely