

Lovely

Fly By Midnight

Inches between us, counting in down
Midnight's emotion, drivin' around
I look over at you, and you look at me too
And if I just lean in and get out of my head
Don't know what you would do

You're so lovely
You look so lovely
You're so lovely
I wish you love me

Now things between us climbing now
The moment is fleeting, I can't slow it down
Since college, I've been, hung up on that one drunk kiss
If I never leaned in and fell in to your bed
But would I feel this way? I would

'Cause you're so lovely
You look so lovely
You're so lovely
I wish you love me
You're so lovely, lovely, lovely
You're so lovely, lovely, lovely
You're so lovely, lovely, lovely
You're so, yeah, you're so, you're so

When I think about you, ah
Every time you get closer, ah
I don't want you to go, ah, ah
(I think about you)
When I think about you, ah
Every time you get closer, ah
I don't want you to go, ah (Ah)

You're so lovely
You look so lovely
You're so lovely
I wish you loved me
You're so lovely
You look so lovely
You're so lovely
I wish you love me (I wish you love me)
You're so lovely (You're so lovely)
You look so lovely (You look so lovely)
You're so lovely (You're so lovely)
I wish you love me (I wish you love me)
You're so lovely, lovely, lovely
You're so lovely, lovely, lovely
You're so lovely, lovely, lovely
You're so, yeah, you're so, you're so
Lovely, lovely, lovely (I wish you love me)
Lovely, lovely, lovely (I wish you)
Lovely, lovely, lovely (I wish you)

(I wish you love me, yeah, yeah)
(I wish you love me, yeah, yeah)
